Past, Present, and Potential Sponsors,

On behalf of Olde Town Covington and the 6th Annual Covington Cork & Pork Festival, we hope your winter has been a pleasant one and best wishes for a successful spring as we glimpse forward to summer.

As you are hopefully aware, last year's event was very well attended and enjoyed by both children and adults. However, please be 100% sure, that we fully recognize that without your efforts and sponsorships, such an event is nowhere near possible. Thanks to You from Olde Town, local and visiting residents, visiting teams, vendors, and the judges that visited from Virginia and multiple neighboring states.

The event is one of 450 Sanctioned KCBS (Kansas City Barbecue Society) events that are held worldwide this year. If we have 25 teams compete, it becomes a valid Virginia State Championship and the winner qualifies for The American Royal World Series of Barbecue.

We have already received confirmation from our first team and judges. We anticipate that teams will again travel to Cork & Pork to compete from throughout the state, northeast and south again. Please take a look at KCBS.us to view the magnitude of competition barbecue.

A bit of additional good news is that we have again extended the event to include food, drink, and entertainment to Saturday night. Again, a local resident has volunteered to work in recruiting both wineries and local craft breweries participation in Cork & Pork this year. Last year because of your contributions, we were able to expand advertising of the event to a regional level in television, radio, and internet circles and will do so again this year. Please understand that we work very hard to recruit wineries and try to get as many as possible; however, this is very difficult and if you have any connections, please help us by contacting them and get us contact information as well.

We will clear the website late March and advertiser links to your websites. Again, as best we can, we look forward to promoting your sponsorship and generosity to this local event in its 6th year. Within the next couple of weeks take a look at covingtoncorkandpork.com, let us know what you think, and yes, we are open to your input and suggestions. We truly want this to become a local community effort here in the highlands.

If you have been a contributor the last five years, or any of the five years, we are again very appreciative of your support. All of your funds have been used directly for the promotion and operation of Cork and Pork. If you have considered the event in the past, or this is the first time you have been approached or heard of it, please join the effort to keep this going and demonstrate your support of this event. Cork and Pork has survived a major storm and competition from events in much larger localities, let's make it a tradition that continues for many years.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via email at dbryant@covington.va.us or my personal cell 540-968-3561.

Thanks

"BB" Bryant, Cork & Pork Coordinator for Olde Town Covington
